THE LAW OF SERVICE
1 Peter 5:1–5

Introduction

1 Peter 5:1-5 is another exposition of a _____,

Proverbs 3:34.

Mark 14:27-31; Matthew 16:21-23; Luke 22:61-62;
John 21:15-17

2. Peter has an exhortation for the church, a lesson he himself learned through the greatest _____ of his life.

An Exhortation to Elders (1-4)

3. Even though you may not be an elder, there is application to all of us, as well as instruction as to how you ought to _____ for elders.

2 Peter 1:16-18; 1 Timothy 1:12-16; Luke 24:26;
1 Peter 4:12-14

4. Peter is an elder who has sinned, has repented, has been restored, and will share in Christ's _____.

Matthew 20:25-27; Hebrews 13:7, 17

5. If you know the temptations elders face, and the accountability they have, you will know how better to pray for them and _____ them.

An Exhortation to Youngers (5a)

6. The privilege of leadership is for those who have attained not only majority but also _____, and that comes with time and trial.

An Exhortation to All (5b)

7. Humility is a _____ which one ties around himself.

Ephesians 4:1-3; Philippians 2:1-4

Conclusion

8. Humility runs counter to our natural tendencies and is considered no virtue by the _____!

John 13:12-17; Philippians 2:5-8